DEDICATED TO

DAVID GARRICK, Esq;

This day is PUBLISHED,

BELL's EDITION

OF

Shakespeare's Acting Plays,

With twenty-four engravings, done from original drawings made on purpose for this work, by Mr. Edwards of the Royal Academy, and executed at a very great expence, by a select number of the most eminent English engravers; together with two speaking portraits of

SHAKESPEARE and GARRICK,

Both of which are executed by Mr. Hall, and deservedly looked upon as the best productions of this country.

This curious edition is beautifully printed on fine demy paper, in five volumes, price only Fifteen shillings sewed, and also on superfine royal paper, large enough to admit of marginal notes, at One Guinea per sett, sewed.

It contains twenty-four of the Author's most esteemed plays, each of which is ornamented with a beautiful frontispiece, and regulated by permission of the managers, agreeable to the present mode of performance at the Theatres Royal in London, by Mr. Hopkins, prompter at Drury-lane, and Mr Younger, prompter at Covent-garden; with notes critical and illustrative, respecting the text, and the requisites necessary to do each material character justice on the stage.

By the AUTHORS of the DRAMATIC CENSOR.

The introduction contains an Essay on Oratory, which may serve as improving lessons to professors of the pulpit and the bar, as well as of the stage.
